HOOVER, SENATE CHIEFS DISAGREE ON NORRIS BILL

Controversy Centers About
Operation of Muscle
Shoals Project

SPECIAL SESSION MAY BE CALLED IN SPRING

Compromise Between Senate and House Now Is Being Sought

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14. (AP)—Differences between President Hoover and some of his Republican leaders in the senate over the Norris measure for government operation of the Muscle Shoals, Ala., power and nitrate plant remained to be settled Friday night before the threat of an extra session of congress next spring is dissipated.

Senator McNary of Oregon, the assistant Republican leader, is standing firm for the government operation bill which is in conflict with the house measure for private operation. McNary is chairman of the conference on this legislation.

A compromise between the senate and house is being sought. Senator Norris, Republican, Nebraska, author of the senate's government operation measure, already has offered a compromise whereby the power plant at Muscle Shoals would be under government operation and control and the nitrate plant available to private lease. The house conferees so far have refused this.

Aside from the Muscle Shoals contest, which will be one of the first propositions confronting the session, the legislative program is (Continued on Page Ten.)

DAPPER BANDIT GETS $300,000 IN RINGS, GEMS

Gains Admission To Office
On Pretense Shopping
For Ring

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 14. (AP)—On pretense of shopping for a ring for his wife, a dapper young robber gained entrance to the office of Maurice Reinhold, president of the M. Reinhold Company, diamond wholesalers Friday and looted the safe of rings and unset gems valued by company officials at $300,000.

Reinhold, alone in his office, was snatched and bound. While he was unconscious, the robber walked through the other office in a downtown building and escaped.

Miss Dorothea Kirk and David Dautloff, secretaries, were in the outer office when the robber arrived. (Continued on Page Ten.)

Pecan Growers To Hold Meet On November 19

The North Texas Pecan Growers' Association will hold its regular annual meeting at Bonham this year, according to J. B. Moore, president of the Pecan County Pecan Growers' Association. The meeting will be held in the firemen's club room, Wednesday, November 19, and will begin at 9 o'clock a. m.

Representatives from the horticulture department of A. and M. College will be present to discuss questions of interest to pecan growers. These questions will include disease affecting pecans as well as the adaptability of the various varieties to the soils of this section.

Pecan growers from all over the part of the state are expected to be at the meeting, including a number from Lamar county.

As there is an increasing interest being shown in pecan culture, the meeting comes at a time when it should be especially valuable.

Iowa Farmer Is Husking Champ For Fourth Time

NORTON, Kas., Nov. 14. (AP)—Fred Stanek, 29-year-old Iowa farmer, speeded through a dusty Kansas corn field Friday into his fourth national husking championship.

Stanek didn't mind the dust. He proved it by shucking a net load of 30.24 bushels in the 30-minute contest. In previous years he conquered other handicaps imposed by nature.

With a bitter wind in his face and icy blades cutting his gloves Stanek stripped husk-laden stalks at Winnebago, Minn., in 1927 and won. He conquered a sudden and unexpected field near Fremont, Neb., in 1926 to carry a cup and

TRANS-ATLANTIC MAIL LINES NOW BEING PLANNED

Confirmation Given Friday
That Line Taking Definite Form

ARRANGEMENTS NOW
PRACTICALLY MADE

Postoffice Department Is Ready Give Mail When Operators Prepared

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14. (AP)—Both the old world and the new figured Friday in the air routes contemplated by the postoffice department.

Plans which once went awry were set up again for extending the service in South America while confirmation was given that a line to span the Atlantic was taking definite form.

W. Irving Glover, second assistant postmaster general, said the Pan-American Airways, Incorporated, and Imperial Airways, Ltd., of England, were planning the transatlantic service via Bermuda and the Azores and that everything had been settled but questions of equipment, weather conditions and landing fields.

The South America, the service from Paramaribo, Dutch Guiana to Santos, Brazil, the commencement of which was prevented by the Brazilian revolution, will begin November 27. On December 2, direct service will be started between Miami, Florida and Cristobal, Canal Zone. Both lines will connect with the present South American service.

The postoffice department was ready to give mail to the transatlantic service when the operators are ready. The project has not progressed, however, to the point where they have been advertised for by the department.

Negotiations were described as virtually complete whereby Pan-American Airways, now operating southward from the United States to the West Indies, Mexico and south Central America, would operate the leg between Bermuda and the States.

The status of the project east of Bermuda was not known to the department but Glover understood that Imperial Airways, which connects the British Isles by air with Europe, India and Africa, would handle the route with newly developed flying boats of great operating radius.

ELECTRIC CHAIR FOR MURDER IS GREEN NEGRO

DALLAS, Nov. 14. (AP)—Walter (Bud) Curtis, negro, was found guilty of murdering Mrs. Irene Todaro during a holdup, by a jury here Friday and his punishment was assessed at death in the electric chair. The jury was out 40 minutes.

Mrs. Todaro was killed by a bullet last March 29 which first passed through her husband's shoulder. She ran to Todaro's assistance just as the negro robber fired.

Continue Testimony In Railroad Case

AUSTIN, Nov. 14. (AP)—Testimony meant to show there was no need for firemen on motor propelled passenger trains continued in district court Friday as the state attempted to show the validity of the attorney general's applying the "full crew" law to these short line trains.

L. D. McDonald, general manager of the Southern Pacific line, was the principal witness, testifying on behalf of railroad who obtained an injunction to prevent enforcement of the rule. Under continued cross examination by attorneys for the state and railroad brotherhoods McDonald maintained his assertion there was no possible duty for firemen on the steamless trains.

To Accept Roadwork Bids.

AUSTIN, Nov. 14. (AP)—Bids will be accepted by the state highway department November 29 and December 1 on 29 projects, the estimated cost of which is $2,400,000, according to a tentative schedule announced Friday by Gibb Gilchrist, state highway engineer. Contracts for the work will specify the use of local labor wherever possible as a means of relieving the unemployment, Gilchrist said.

Lima Calm After Wednesday's Riot

LIMA, Peru, Nov. 14. (AP)—A semblance of calm existed Friday night in the Cerro de Pasco mining area, where 15 persons, including two Americans, were killed in labor riots Wednesday, but martial law continued and the mines remained idle.

At Collao, normal transportation was restored, and in Lima there was no recurrence of the mild excitement which attended yesterday's transportation strike.

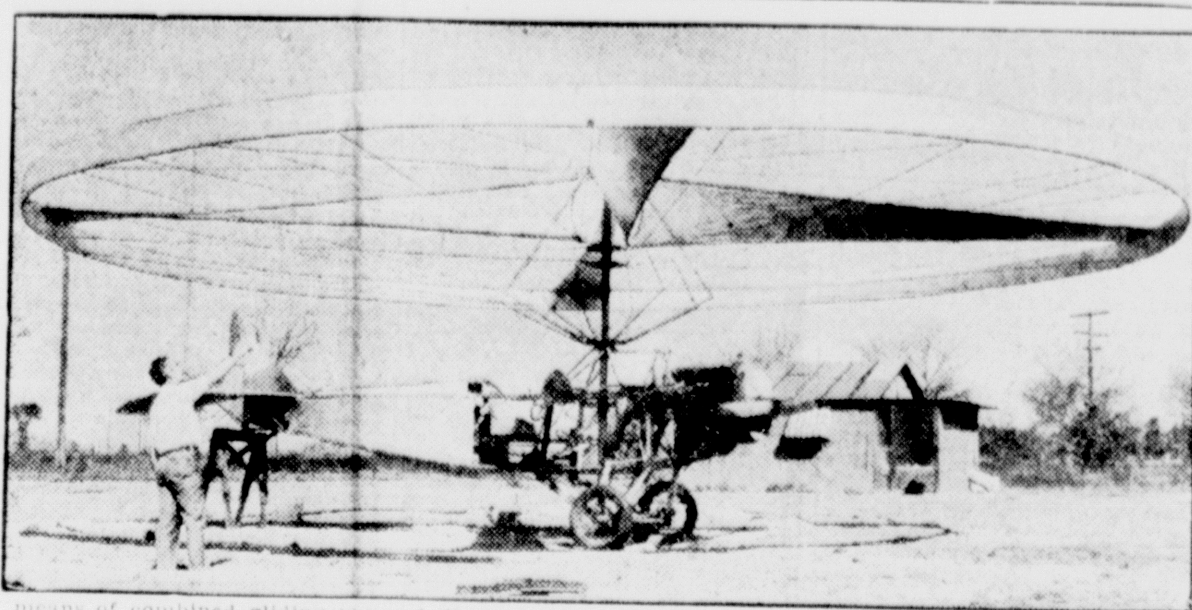

Tarrant Farmer Is Enjoined By Court

FORT WORTH, Nov. 14. (AP)—Carl Yates, farmer, who built two fences across the new state highway No. 121 near Grapevine last week in protest against the amount of damages for right of way he obtained from Tarrant county, was enjoined by Judge Frank P. Culver of Seventeenth district court Friday from further obstructing the highway or from making threats against state representatives.

Deputy sheriff Minor Moore left immediately for Grapevine to serve Yates with a copy of the injunction writ.

SIXTY GIRLS TO HOLD RED CROSS TAG DAY TODAY

Come Across for Red Cross
Is Plea: to Be in Business Sectors

"Come across for the Red Cross!" This will be the plea of sixty girls Saturday, when tag day will be held for the Lamar county chapter annual Roll Call for the Red Cross. This will give everyone who has not been approached, an opportunity to join or to donate to the chapter's funds for the coming year.

The Junior Welfare League of which Miss Alice Fairfax is president, is heading the teams which will be located in various downtown places of business during the day, and the members will be assisted by a number of young girls in the solicitations.

Since early in the week, district captains and their assistants have been canvassing the residential sections of the city, enrolling members, and on Thursday, a large group of business men began work in the commercial and industrial areas for the same purpose.

The plea in this year's drive is to make donations as much larger as possible than those of last year, in view of the greatly increased demands on the local chapter, and the fact that the organization is in debt, due to the necessity for borrowing over $500 in order to continue the work the past year.

WCTU President Addresses Meet

CONVENTION HALL, Houston, Nov. 14. (AP)—The National Woman's Christian Temperance Union was exhorted Friday by its president, Ella A. Boole, to continue with unabated zeal its campaign against the foes of prohibition.

Mrs. Boole's annual address was delivered here before the delegates and a number of notable visitors, including Gov. Dan Moody and Governor Elect Ross S. Sterling. She criticized the "wet press" and other agencies and persons she said were attempting to nullify the eighteenth amendment.

Engine Trouble Slows Time Of Big Plane

BOURDEAUX, France, Nov. 14. (AP)—The largest flying boat in the world, the German DO-X, bubbled Friday night on a calm sea between the fortified island of Re and the city of La Rochelle, interrupted after a trying day in which it left England for Bordeaux on another phase of its projected flight to the United States.

Late Friday night the huge ship reached this point and threw out anchor after traveling on the surface along the coastline for 39 or more miles. There it awaited, comfortably, the coming of day-light.

When the DO-X made the French coast on route from England Friday afternoon some of her 12 engines began to work badly, and she lost speed, requiring two hours to fly from Cherbourg to Usant and 20 minutes from there to Bourdeaux. The DO-X held her course, however, until she reached Les Barges, a small coastal point near Sables d'Olonne. By that time it was understood, four motors were giving trouble.

It was 5:50 p. m. night was falling fast and a dense sea mist, which had been dispelled by the bright winter sun early Friday (Continued on Page Ten.)

BOERNE, Nov. 14. (AP)—Funeral services will be held Saturday for Fritz Blank, 25, a farmer, who was shot and killed Thursday night by two men who came to the home of Alfred Heilmann, brother-in-law, six miles southeast of Boerne, where Blank was spending the night.

Labor Riots In Spanish Capital

MADRID, Nov. 14. (AP)—With a suddenness which left the city aghast, a series of labor riots exploded in the center of the business section Friday and within half an hour four men had been killed, a dozen seriously wounded and fifty others injured.

Thousands of workmen poured into the streets augmenting a crowd which had gathered for funeral services for four workers who had perished in a building collapse. The demonstration began as a protest against the erection of flimsy buildings which endangered the lives of workmen, but it developed quickly into a vicious battle.

Program to Help Farmers Planned

DALLAS, Nov. 14. (AP)—A program of educational work designed to assist the farmer with his problems of cotton production and marketing was tentatively agreed on at a meeting of representatives of the federal farm board, the federal board for vocational education and state vocational education supervisors here Friday. Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Louisiana and Mississippi were represented.

PONCA CITY, Okla., Nov. 14. (AP)—As a result of an investigation into the robbery Wednesday of the Marland State bank in which one young robber was killed and another wounded, Marie Ware, young divorcee, was arrested Friday as a principal and Chris Wiedeloch, informant, was hustled off to jail on an old liquor conviction.

Carter Camp, 25, Pawhuska youth, who was shot five times by officers who killed his companion, Jimmie Jackson, 24, charged that Wiedeloch suggested and helped plan the robbery and then informed officers.

BAPTISTS DECIDE HAVE FOUNDATION TO HANDLE FUNDS

Amarillo, Nov. 14. (AP)—Back tracking some of the ground it had previously covered, the Baptist General convention of Texas Friday reconsidered its previous decision to establish a foundation to handle funds for its institutions, and decided to create the agency recommended by a committee appointed at the Beaumont meeting last year.

Meets Greatest Work
Dr. W. R. Scarborough of Fort Worth, president of the convention, said the adoption of the foundation plan was the greatest work of the session and described the action as a most constructive step towards handling the financing of (Continued on Page Ten.)

Sheriff Fires On Man Parked Close to Bank

LA GRANGE, Tex., Nov. 14. (AP)—J. J. Day, Chicago salesman, lost his way while en route from Houston to Austin and stopped at Carmine, 24 miles from here to rest. He parked his automobile near the Carmine bank and went to sleep.

Shortly after the burglar alarm of the bank sounded, Sheriff Will Lorenson in his office at La Grange, was notified and hurried to Carmine.

Arriving at the bank he observed the Illinois license on the Day automobile and reasoned the occupants were the culprits. He also noted the Chicago name plate and determined to take no chances.

He cautiously approached the automobile and asked the occupants to get out. Mrs. Day was awake and tried to arouse her husband. In awakening, Day touched the horn and the sheriff believing it was a signal to Day's confederates, opened fire. Mrs. Day sustained only flesh wounds and will recover.

It was believed the alarm circuit was struck by lightning.

TURKEY AND DEER SUPPLY PLENTIFUL

AUSTIN, Nov. 14. (AP)—A plentiful supply of deer and turkey will be on hand for the opening Sunday of the season on this game, W. J. Tucker, executive secretary of the game, fish and oyster commission, said Friday. Tucker said the number of hunters seeking game also would be plentiful and that he looked for an increase in the army of nimrods taking the field.

East Lynn Costumes To Recreate Modes of '90s

An aura of lambskins, of what-nots and antiques, of Gainsborough hats and what the well dressed man of 1890 wore, will suffuse the presentation of "East Lynn" by the Paris Little Theatre next Thursday and Friday evenings at the Masonic auditorium.

While "East Lynn" was written as a novel many years before this time, and had been a stage favorite at the beginning of the Gay Nineties, this period was chosen for the stage of the auditorium, or for that matter of almost any little theatre, isn't large enough to accommodate hoop skirts and the voluminous bustles and cumbersome trains of an earlier fashion.

The costumes themselves pre-

American Coop Gives Figures On Cotton Crop

Has Received 1,700,000
Bales Report
Shows

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 12. (AP)—The American cotton cooperative association Friday issued its first official announcement of receipts and advances on the 1930 crop, revealing it had advanced $82,970, 911.86 on 1,544,629 bales of cotton delivered to the association as of November 12.

Officials explained the number of bales did not cover the total deliveries to the state associations but only cotton for which actual collateral has been turned over to the American association. The total bales received so far is about 1,700,000.

Seasonal pool deliveries are now receiving 90 per cent of market value from the cooperative, based on 11 cent spot prices, which have prevailed during the greater part of the season.

Figures show the deliveries to the cooperative are running three times as high as the total individual associations received last year.

Bodies of Two Women Lifted From Ruins

LYONS, France, Nov. 14. (AP)—The bodies of two women, crushed beyond recognition, were lifted Friday from the ruins of one of the five houses destroyed Thursday at a landslide along the slopes of the Fourviere hill.

It brought the number of bodies recovered to eight, but as the work of excavation among the debris proceeded it appeared the number of those killed in the catastrophe might exceed optimistic estimates. The working crews were hampered by water from broken mains.

Engineers decided Friday the Fourviere hill must be shored up permanently to prevent repetition of such a disaster as that which has overwhelmed the city, and plans for the work already have been begun.

Meanwhile, digging in the ruins must go on for several days longer, for it is probable that nearly 100 bodies still are buried.

Total Age 150, Man And Daughter Take First Plane Ride

AMARILLO, Nov. 14. (AP)—Father and daughter, aged 59 and 60 respectively, enjoyed their first airplane ride Friday when J. A. Windham, retired rancher of El Paso and Mrs. E. C. Houghton, Sr., his daughter, came from El Paso to Amarillo by plane with Harold English, manager of English Field here. The couple enjoyed their experience and did not suffer from air sickness.

Iowa Students Overrun City

AMES, Ia., Nov. 14. (AP)—Two thousand Iowa state college students overran the business district Friday afternoon following publication in the college paper of a letter from a merchant charging they were not supporting the football team properly. The fire department was called to fight several bon fires in the streets.

The students, representing almost half the college enrollment broke up classes and then swarmed down town. Little damage was done. The group returned to the campus of its own volition and held a pep meeting in preparation for the Iowa state-Kansas Aggies game Saturday.

The Iowa State student carried a letter from V. M. Lynch, an Ames business man, claiming the undergraduates had failed to show proper support to the football team. Resenting the accusation the students wanted to show townsmen they were enthusiastic rooters, their leaders said.

Oklahoma Judging Team Wins.

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 14. (AP)—A team of youthful stock judges from Woods county, Oklahoma, representing that state in a 4-H club contest here, Friday outlasted teams from Kansas, Iowa, Missouri, Texas and Arkansas, in that order.

sent endless difficulties: should sleeves be leg-o'-mutton, or puffed and shirred? Should pompadours or bangs prevail for feminine hair-dressing? And should the lambskins adorn many checks or be confined to the mantelpiece? What did a morning coat look like in those days, and what about milady's peignoir? Yes—that costume committee has had a tough time of it.

So far as possible, the technical staff has striven to recreate the atmosphere of the early years of the Mauve Decade, or late Victorian period, in order to complete the presentation, of the old time favorite in keeping with the dramatic style in which it will be interpreted under direction of Mrs. Emma Alexander.

ARMS COMMISSION ADOPTS BRITISH PROPOSAL FRIDAY

Vote Is Sixteen to Three
With United States
Among 6 Abstentions

GERMANY, ITALY AND RUSSIA OPPOSE PLAN

French and Russian Delegates Enliven Day With Verbal Battle

GENEVA, Nov. 14. (AP)—The preparatory disarmament commission, after three days of debate, Friday adopted the British proposal which sets forth that a majority of the commission associates itself with the principle of land war limitation by the budgetary method.

The vote was sixteen to three, with six abstentions including the United States, which through its representative, Hugh S. Gibson, previously had declared the plan unacceptable.

Ambassador Gibson Friday explained he was obliged to abstain from voting as he would have preferred the commission to have first placed its decision as to whether there really was a majority in favor of budget limitation.

The British resolution, as presented by Viscount Cecil, reads: "A majority of the commission associates itself with the principle of limitation by budgetary methods of land war material, while recognizing that certain members would prefer the direct method by specific enumeration and that certain members would desire to see some combination of the two methods."

Viscount Cecil explained his purpose was to put an end to the long (Continued on Page 10)

TEXAS NOT TO GET ADDITIONAL FUND

Highway Engineer Says
Washington Dispatches
Incorrect, Misleading

AUSTIN, Nov. 14. (AP)—Terminating Washington dispatches regarding funds available for highway work in Texas "incorrect and misleading," Gib Gilchrist, state highway engineer, said Friday the highway department was putting a federal aid to work "as fast as possible."

Speeding up of work, suggested in the Washington dispatches, started in Texas "several months ago," Gilchrist said.

He took exception to what he termed accounts which left the "impression" that Texas had been given an additional $19,488,475.

"It is true," he said, "that the bureau of public roads has appropriated funds to the states for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1932. Use of these funds follows immediately after the amount appropriated for the present fiscal year of 1931 are placed under contract or agreement."

"The speeding up of construction in Texas by reason of increase in federal aid began last April (Continued on Page Ten.)

Lamar Ginnings Holding Up Well

Cotton ginnings to November 1, show a decrease of less than 6,000 bales from last year, according to a report received Friday from Marcus Gough of Roxton, cotton statistician for Lamar county. This year's total to November 1, was 40,633 as compared to 46,152 for the same date, 1929.

As these figures include only ginning to November 1 it is thought that the present total for the county is almost equal to the November 1 total of last year. Despite many predictions to the contrary, a number of cotton men and farmers say that this year's crop will exceed 45,000 bales.

Although picking has been finished in many parts of the county, there is some scattering cotton in several sections yet. However, it is thought that practically the entire crop will be ginned by December 1.

CLUB BOY TELLS OF CORN PROJECT

Demonstration That Won Him Trip Explained by Blake Bonham

Editor's Note: The following story of a 4-H club boy's corn growing demonstration is a good example of what can be accomplished on the sandy soils of this county. The demonstration as told, won the writer the trip to the Club Congress at Chicago, given by the Santa Fe railway, according to A. L. Edmiston, county agent.

BY BLAKE BONHAM
Lamar County.

This is my fourth year in club work. This year I am carrying demonstrations in corn, hogs, beef calf, dairying and poultry.

I first broke my land early, turning under corn stalks and cow peas vines, after grazing them down. I laid my land off with a bedder and planted in the furrow after distributing two hundred pounds of four-twelve-four fertilizer to the acre. I planted my corn March 11, using Ferguson's yellow dent corn seed carefully selected for show type. The land is deep sandy loam, I plowed my corn four times with a cultivator and four sweeps and hoed it once. On May 31st I side dressed my corn with one hundred pounds of sulphate ammonia to the acre, according to my county agent's instruction, following with a plow.

I used fertilizer to prove that more profit per acre could be made by building up land, planting legumes and using commercial fertilizer.

My rows were 182 yards long. I measured thirty yards in my field and gathered the corn from three rows thirty yards long and weighed it giving my county agent the weights. He figured the yield of the three acres on this basis and my yield was forty-five bushels per acre. Two neighbors and my father did the measuring and weighing of the corn gathered.

I am feeding my corn to calves and pigs, at their present weights and gains and local prices offered for them my corn will bring me a dollar and thirty-six cents per bushel making a total income of $113.50 from three acres of corn, less an expense of $71.35 leaving me a profit of $42.15.

I feed my corn every year to my livestock because I get more money for it that way than by selling it on the market. Last year I pastured it down with my hogs and did not gather it as I have this year.

Corn of the same kind on like soil without any fertilizer averaged less than seventeen bushels per acre on adjoining lands.

Signed, Blake Bonham,
Approved, A. L. Edmiston
County Agent.

Ross 'To Punch Time Clock' In Governor's Office Will Run It on Business Scale

BY RAYMOND BROOKS

News Austin Correspondent

AUSTIN, Nov. 14.—The time-clock is to be the aptest symbol of Gov. Elect Ross S. Sterling's two-year reign.

There will be no official trouncing over the state. If anyone expects him to convert his office into "either a circus or a parade," Mr. Sterling has served notice such a view can now be revised.

Mr. Sterling has authorized the statement that he regards the governor's office as a business office, just like any other and that he intends to stay at the capital, run it as a business office, and concentrate his attention upon its serious affairs.

"There will be no speech-making at county fairs, no oratory at the opening of new buildings, the governor will not travel over Texas to welcome conventions or to take part in celebrations of any kind."

Cuts Out the Hub-dub

This was the gist of his declaration of the policy that will guide him when he takes office Jan. 20. Mr. Sterling's pronouncement was even more vigorous than that of Gov. Elect Bill Murray of Oklahoma.

Mr. Murray said he appointed the lieutenant governor as "chief, appearance dispenser."

This gave sanction to critical hub-dub and oratory.

But the millionaire business man who will take the helm of Texas government considers the job of running the state one identical with that of running his and successful enterprises. He didn't build up his business by cringing over the state or oratorical missions or holiday excursions, he pointed out. He doesn't believe the state's enormous official affairs can be administered in that way, and he doesn't expect to start such a system.

This is the second of the vigorous "noes" that have come from the governor-elect. The first was the notice that "no" will be the answer to anybody who tries to apply political pressure to get a job. The second negation is for those who expect to use the governor as trimmings, decoration or show-piece for celebrations, festivals, fairs, gatherings, political or otherwise.

Grindstone Era

That is the negative side of the picture as to official trouncing over Texas.

The other side is that of exalting the prosaic grind of daily labor, the orderly, consistent, close application of the chief executive to the business of running the state.

Though Mr. Sterling made no comment upon this aspect, it is known that effect of the governor's example radiates out through the agencies of the state like waves from the prow of a moving ship.

If it works out like Mr. Sterling has in mind now, his administration in future years likely will be looked back upon as the "Grindstone era."

Life Shown on Walls

The plan of concentration, intense hard work such as that of which the business man governs, to be a life-long record, is expected to start the new administration out with tight-buckled morale. And if a general guess may be risked before he completes the job of picking his main helpers, the record of the individuals for hard work and time-clock consistency "on the job" will be a dominating factor in their selection.

Pump pageantry gold braid and red tape are going to mean little to the brusque, ruddy-faced man who roughed it in the oil fields, where country friends still remember his skill in tossing a bale of hay and a sack of corn chops into the farm wagon at a single two-handed gesture.

One's minute glance at his office will give almost a complete key to Mr. Sterling's attitude of mind as to the things that count. Some people consider crowds, celebrations, official assemblies, the formalities of public speaking, the showing off in public settings of splendor and magnificence as the apex, climax and visible emblem of officialdom in action.

Humble Refinery Shown

In the arches of Mr. Sterling's tall office, between the paneled walls and the vaulted ceiling there are, in stone, sculptured friezes of five scenes, symbols of the high points in his business career. Directly in front of him, as he sits at a desk in front of a carved marble fireplace, is the replica of a giant oil refinery, stills, tanks, pipes, machinery, in hard realism. That is the Humble company that he built from three little oil wells to a world-wide concern.

At his left is a scene of farming and livestock symbols of his early years.

To his right is the blending of business and romance, with shipping represented by graceful sailing-decked sloops. He started "on his own" by sailing a little boat across Galveston bay. Later he served as chairman of the Houston port commission until the present.

At his back are scenes portraying skyscrapers, one of his business interests, and a railroad and train, representing his past experience as president of a railroad.

Turning Wheels of Commerce

Not much politics or poetry in these. All are close to the business of making a living, or turning the wheels of commerce. All are redolent of the idea of hard consistent driving, unceasing work, and their meaning has been blended together by Mr. Sterling in his statement that he will carry into the capital his record in business and in highway administration as a guiding principle—on the job every day, all day, with thought and energy concentrated upon the task of running the $100,000,000 a year business of Texas government.

BIGGER AND BETTER

PRESENTING THE NEW CHEVROLET SIX

Today the Chevrolet Motor Company presents the Bigger and Better Chevrolet Six, a new model of the six-cylinder car which has enjoyed such wide popularity. In the chassis and body of this new six-cylinder Chevrolet you will find expressed, as never before, Chevrolet's well-known policy of progress through constant improvement.

For—without departing from the basic features which have won the enthusiastic approval of over 2,000,000 buyers—Chevrolet has set an entirely new standard of quality and value in the low-price field.

Your first impression of the new Chevrolet will be one of striking fleetness, grace and beauty. The car is longer, lower and modernly smart. The radiator has been deepened. The long hood lines sweep back to blend gracefully into the new Fisher bodies. And never was Fisher's fine craftsmanship more evident than in the bodies of the new Chevrolet Six!

Not only are the bodies roomier and more comfortable, but as you study them you will discover many gratifying new features and refinements.

Mechanically, too, the new Chevrolet Six is a better automobile. The wheelbase is longer. The frame is stronger. The steering is easier. The clutch is more durable. There is a smoother, quieter, easier shifting transmission. In fact, wherever finer materials and more advanced design could add to Chevrolet quality or increase Chevrolet's traditional economy of ownership—improvement has been made. See the new Chevrolet Six—for here is the Great American Value!

FIXING FOWL FOR THANKSGIVING

Suggested Menus For the Day When Folks Eat At Home

By Marie Gifford

There are certain holidays during the year that custom dictates shall be celebrated at home. Thanksgiving is peculiarly characteristic of this type of holiday. So let us plan the Thanksgiving dinner and get the shopping done early and do as much preparation as possible in advance. This will assist in making the day less trying to the homemaker who must be cook, waitress, maid and hostess. According to market information there will be an ample supply of turkeys of all sizes and better quality than last year, and you will remember that turkeys were especially fine in 1929. Then here is another encouraging bit of news, the price will be very moderate and make possible a turkey dinner for all who prefer this meat. Ducks, geese, chickens and capons will also be in good supply and relatively low in cost.

For those who do not wish to serve poultry at the home Thanksgiving dinner, let us suggest the ever delicious, always sweet, tender ham baked in tasty fruit juices and served golden brown with a garnish of sweet potatoes and parsley. Of course, roast beef, mutton and lamb are always good, and particularly so during the holiday season.

The menus that follow suggest some of the meats mentioned in the foregoing paragraph:

Oyster cocktail, olives, celery, roast turkey, bread stuffing, mashed potatoes, brown sauce, cauliflower au gratin, peas in white turnip cups, cranberry jelly, Parker-house rolls, nutmeg pie, mixed nuts, coffee.

Clear soup, baked ham with orange sauce, roasted sweet potatoes, Brussels sprouts, tomato jelly salad, red currant jelly, dinner rolls, plum pudding, mixed nuts, raisins, coffee.

Fruit cup, roast goose, yucca stuffing, brown sauce, baked squash, mashed potatoes, perfection salad, mayonnaise dressing, cranberry ice, celery, olives, fruit cake with hard sauce, nuts, candied raisins, coffee.

Whether you plan to have turkey, goose or chicken for Thanksgiving, the general directions for roast turkey may be helpful.

Roast Turkey

To prepare the bird, singe carefully by holding over a gas flame, turning it very slowly. Then cut off the neck, cutting close to the body. Loosen the tendons, one inch below the last joint, and place the point of a skewer under the tendons, pull out one at a time, then break off the feet. Remove the pin feathers using a pair of large tweezers or a cranberry butter knife. Remove the oil bag from the tail, then using a small poultry or vegetable brush, scrub the bird very thoroughly both inside and out. Dry thoroughly and rub inside of the bird well with salt. Place in the refrigerator to become thoroughly chilled, then stuff with the following or any favorite dressing:

- 1 quart stale bread
- 1-1/2 onion, chopped fine
- 1 cup celery root, diced
- 1/2 cup salted butter
- 1/2 cup strained tomatoes
- 2 tablespoons bacon drippings
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1-2 teaspoon pepper, ginger and nutmeg.

Soak the bread crumbs in warm water and squeeze dry. Melt the drippings in a pan and add the chopped liver, ground heart, onion, and celery, rub them in the bread and try for about 15 minutes. Then add the other ingredients and mix well. Cool and stuff into the prepared turkey. Sew or overlap the opening, then from the bird and return to the refrigerator. Thanksgiving day, sprinkle salt over the bird, and rub it into the skin. Dust with flour and lay strips of bacon over the breast and legs. Then place in a roasting pan and roast uncovered in a hot of 325 degree F. oven for 2 1/2 hours, cover and reduce the temperature to 200 degrees F. and allow 20 minutes for each pound, figuring the weight of

Sunday Supper With Little Work

Deviled egg Plate Salad
Thin slices of Hot Buttered Toast
Ice Cream with sliced peaches
Coke
This is a Sunday evening supper menu which calls for little work. The amounts will serve four.

Deviled Eggs—Six hard cooked eggs, three tablespoons creamed cheese, one-half teaspoon dry mustard, one and one-half teaspoons vinegar or more, mayonnaise to make a paste, salt to taste, three tablespoons finely chopped celery. Cut eggs in half, remove and mash yolks. Mix in order given. Fill halves of whites of eggs with mixture and garnish with paprika. Arrange lettuce leaves on individual plates. Place three halves of eggs, one in center of plate. Surround with a ring of cucumbers (sliced) and tomatoes (sliced). Put extra mayonnaise in lettuce strips on each plate.

Make Tea Towels
Your worn out linen dresses will make good tea towels. Just a few times and hold the moisture well.

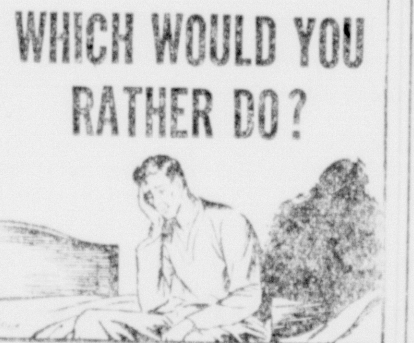

Open Fresh Peach Pies
Bake two shells of a large shell from a rich pastry. Fill with fresh, sliced peaches well mixed with sugar. Top with sweetened whipped cream. Or prepare alternate layers of fresh sliced peaches and sugar. Let stand for an hour, then simmer over a low flame until the juice thus extracted is quite thick. Cook before putting into the baked shells.

To Join Carpet Bags

Overturn the ends of two bags to be joined about three-fourths of an inch. Cut a short lengthwise slit through both bags. Next, take the free end of the bag that is on top and slip it up through the slit. Draw the knot tight and the bags are neatly and firmly joined.

This is much more quickly done than the old way of sewing, and results in a firm, flat joining, which is conducive to good work in rug making. It is called the "weaver's knot."

In cutting hostess for rugs you will find that by placing one stocking directly inside the other one can cut both easier than one, in half the time.

Box For College Boy or Girl

Butterscotch Cookies

Golden Fruit Cake

Cream Taffy Fudge Penicillin

Maybe your boy or girl won't be home from school for Thanksgiving, and you want to send them a box of goodies. Or possibly a birthday is coming that you will want to remember. Or you just want to send them something anyway. Mothers are that way. Here are a few suggestions as to the contents of that box. Add as many things as you like. A glass of 1/2 lb. or 1 lb. is nice if it can be packed so that it will not break. Home cooked chicken or ham, well wrapped in wax paper, will be appreciated.

Golden Fruit Cake—Two cups white raisins, one-half pound candied citron, one-half pound candied orange peel, one-half pound candied cherries, one-half pound almonds, one pound flour, one-half teaspoon salt, two teaspoons baking powder, one cup shortening, two cups sugar, six eggs, one cup orange juice, one teaspoon lemon extract. Cut candied fruits in fine strips and chop half the raisins. Mix flour, salt and baking powder over the prepared fruit. Mix well with the finger tips. Cream the butter and add the sugar gradually, creaming well. Add the beaten eggs, stir in flour mixture alternately with the orange juice. Line the tin with three thicknesses of waxed paper, pour in the batter and cover with oil tyeing on with plain paper. Bake in a very moderate oven, 325 degrees, for one and one-half hours, depending on the size of the cake.

Butterscotch Cookies—Three and one-half cups pastry flour, one teaspoon cream of tartar, one teaspoon soda, three-fourths cup fat (butter), two cups brown sugar, one egg, three tablespoons milk, one teaspoon vanilla, one cup chopped nuts, one cup sliced dates, six flour, then measure. Beat with cream of tartar and soda, eggs and continue creaming until smooth and combine well. Stir in the dry ingredients. With the few stir, add nuts and dates. Divide mixture into three parts. Form into rolls, wrap in waxed paper and place in ice box. When thoroughly chilled, slice very thin with a sharp knife. Bake in a hot oven, (400 degrees F.). Five dozen cookies.

Cream Taffy—Two cups sugar, one-fourth cup white corn syrup, one cup milk, one tablespoon butter, one-half tablespoon vanilla, one-half tablespoon lemon extract, three-fourth cup water. Cook sugar and corn syrup in a heavy sauce pan until sugar is dissolved, stirring occasionally. Add milk and butter. Stirring constantly, cook slowly to hard ball stage (235 degrees F.). Remove from fire and pour into a greased platter. When cool enough to handle, pour flavoring in center of mass. Pull up the corners, lift from the platter and pull until light in color and porous. One and one-eighth pounds.

One ingenious housewife used her folding ironing table for a bed table when there was sickness in her home. It was very convenient, she states, as it could be pushed across the bed directly in front of the patient.

To clean coiled bedsprings, make a solution of soap and add one-half cup of kerosene to the gallon of water. Use dish soap to clean with this solution, as the springs can be easily reached with it.

Wants Citizenship

Liberals throughout the country are interesting themselves in the fight of Prof. Douglas Clyde Macintosh of Yale University, above, for citizenship. He was denied citizenship because he refused to subscribe to the doctrine of "my country, right or wrong." John W. Fifty Methodist Leaders of Paris District Here on Friday

Stewards and Laymen Of Parisarea in Conference On Program for District

Following the new legislation of the last general conference held in Dallas last May, more than 50 district stewards, charge lay leaders, district and associate district lay leaders of Paris district, met Friday at the First Methodist church in Paris for their annual meeting. The conference was in charge of the presiding elder of the district, the Rev. Ira C. Kiker of Paris.

The Rev. R. L. Ely of Deport conducted the opening worship. The tasks to be considered at the meeting were given by the presiding elder who read from the discipline the duties of district stewards and charge lay leaders.

The Rev. Paul Stephenson of Dallas, the executive secretary for Christian education for the North Texas conference addressed the meeting and proposed a program of training schools and institutes for the district. As adopted, a three-teacher standard training school will be held at Clarksville November 30-December 5, with a Cokesbury class conducted at the same time at Avery and another at Detroit. For that week, the following Sunday school institutes will be held: At McKenzie church, Cuthand circuit; Brewster church, Clarksville circuit; Bonham church, Annona circuit; and Kanawha, Woodland-Kanawha circuit. WCTU NATIONAL CONVENTION IS OPENED FRIDAY

Message From President Hoover Cheers Members as Meet Starts

HOUSTON, Nov. 14. (AP)—Cheered on by a message from President Hoover, the Woman's Christian Temperance Union opened its 44th annual national convention here Friday with an hour of prayer, song and "testimonies."

Mr. Hoover's telegram, addressed to Mrs. Ella A. Boole of Brooklyn, the W. C. T. U. president, evoked cheering and applause and it was decided to base an answer to it on a resolution, by Mrs. Elizabeth Anderson of North Dakota, pledging support to the administration in its attempts at greater law enforcement, world peace, child welfare and relief of the unemployment situation. Mrs. Ida B. Wise Smith of Des Moines, Iowa, the vice president, officially opened the general session. Mrs. Boole having been busy for the moment with a radio broadcast.

"It is not by might nor power, but by my spirit saith the Lord," she said in beginning the program. Therefore, she added, it was fitting that the second word—"Christian"—in the name of the organization be emphasized. She supplicated an "humbleness of spirit," saying "in ourselves we could do nothing."

Mrs. Florence Atkins of Georgia led the devotionals and one after another of the delegates got up to "testify" with scripture.

Mrs. Atkinson ended the testimony saying she was "sorry but we have to close this part of the program."

"I want to say," she added, "that sometimes we feel a little awed, but the liquor forces cannot combat a faith like ours. They know nothing of the force we know."

Then the Hoover wire was read. Mrs. Boole then "dedicated" a child brought on the stage.

Mrs. Claude de Van Watts of Austin, the state president, made an address welcoming the delegates—estimated unofficially at around 500—and said that Texas was one of the "greatest producers of dry officials." It was the home, she pointed out, of Morris Sheppard, "father of eighteenth amendment." Governor Dan Moody, "fighting red-headed devil," and R. S. Sterling, the governor-elect, who was the "driest of the dry."

VET HOME CHIEF STATES POSITION FOLLOWING AUDIT

Taber Says Has No Knowledge of Misappropriation of Any Funds

AUSTIN, Nov. 14. (AP)—A. W. Taber, superintendent of the home for Confederate veterans here, who offered his resignation to the board of control Thursday following the filing of a report by Moore Lynn, state auditor, on an audit of the home, Friday issued a statement explaining his position.

"I want to state most emphatically that there has never been an error made, or the misappropriation of one cent of funds belonging to an inmate of this institution with my knowledge or consent. If there have been errors made in handling the pension funds, belonging to Confederate veterans, they were made without any intention of wrong doing and without the knowledge of the superintendent."

"I have been required as superintendent for the past five years to receive from the bank and pay to the inmates the sum of about $2,000 monthly. I can truthfully say that there is not an inmate in the institution who did not receive his pension promptly, and any errors that might have occurred were done so by trying to accommodate the veterans in caring for their funds for them at their request. There has been money borrowed by persons working at the institution from the veterans without my knowledge or consent, and in every instance where the matter was reported to me, I immediately took steps to see that the amounts were refunded with as little delay as possible and so far as I have any knowledge every dollar that was ever used by anyone at the institution belonging to the veterans has been paid and the money is in the Austin banks to pay the veterans every cent they have due them and there has never been a complaint from any member of the home and the statements mentioned in the auditor's report showing discrepancies have already been paid and if there should be any others complained of and due credits are not presented, they would be immediately adjusted, but I know none myself."

"I want to assure my friends and the public in general that I have put forth every possible effort to manage the affairs of this institution the very best that I could, to have first at heart the interest of the Confederate veteran and his wife and my duty to the state board of control and the citizens of Texas. My conscience is absolutely clear as to any intentional wrong doing and I believe that those who know me best will bear me out in this statement. My love for the cause of Southern Confederacy is supreme and under no circumstances would I misappropriate the funds of the inmates, the state, or any individual. I am just sorry that after five years of hard labor to try to make the Confederate home a better place to live a competent state auditor should remain at the institution for a period of almost two months and not find even one expression in his report that would be complimentary to the management of the institution."

The board of control had not acted on Taber's resignation, and said no action would be taken until the report had been studied thoroughly. The resignation of Dr. T. C. Hairston, hospital supervisor, also was received but no action was taken on it.

CANZONERI COPS CROWN OFF AL

Singer Loses Bout in First Punches as is Knocked Out by Tony

NEW YORK, Nov. 14. (AP)—Quicker than he won the crown, quicker almost than the eye could follow, young Al Singer was stripped of his light weight title Friday night by Tony Canzoneri, bristling Italian, who started his fantastic fight career as a bootblack in the streets of New Orleans.

Singer, hailed as the new Benny Leonard when he crushed Sammy Mandell in a single round last August to mount the 135-pound throne, lasted only two real punches, and one minute and six seconds against the attack of the former featherweight champion. Tony nailed the sleek Jewish lad with one left hook to the chin, whanged him again and the battle was over in the first round of what started out to be a fifteen round match.

The "viewers with alarm," became very busy the minute Singer hit the floor, as busy as they were when Mandell, a pale, lifeless ghost of himself, was battered into senselessness by Singer in something over two minutes last summer.

DRAGONS TROUNCE OLD RIVALS 12-0

Gridiron Pass, Run, Plunge Gossip Way to Win Over Wesley Panthers

By Dub Furey

FOR THE third time this season the Dragons accomplished something they had not been able to do heretofore. This time it was the defeat of the Wesley Panthers, the first victory for the locals in six games. One week ago they turned back the Texarkana Bulldogs for their first decision over a Texarkana team in four meetings and in the first game of their 1930 schedule they trounced the Burlington College Bruins for the first time in history.

After all this football can hardly be said to be other than the upgrade in Paris striving for several years to arouse the interest of fans and some of the students in football. This year the teams have come forth to more than do their share. The Dragons are known all over northeast Texas for their snap and this year are becoming well known for the regularity with which they break into the win column.

Friday's victory was the fifth of the season for Coach Berry and Hollis and their charges and the second conference fray for the locals. As explained, the Wesley game was allowed to count as a conference game when the Dragons could not schedule additional conference bouts after Gainesville and Wichita Falls had dropped from the race. The Dragons had their choice of the game with Peacock or the Wesley game and without a moment's hesitation chose Wesley. Maybe the coaches knew they would defeat Wesley this year.

MORE GOOD news for local fans. The North Texas Aggies and the Hillsboro Junior College fought to a 6-6 tie at Hillsboro Friday. This draw leaves the Dragons in a most favorable position to capture honors in the J. C. A. A. Further, it puts the J. C. A. College of Marshall game, Thanksgiving Day in the championship class. The winner of this game will become champions of the J. C. A. A. Thus far the Marshall team is undefeated and untied. A tie game with the locals here Thanksgiving Day would place it upon the brow of the Dragons. What a game this should be.

Marshall can be figured on to send a huge delegation of fans to Paris on turkey day, for Marshall is a football town if nothing else. The last two seasons the Tigers have romped under the wire leading the Dragons, last year by the narrow margin of 7 to 6 and the year before, playing in Paris on Thanksgiving, they copped a 19-13 meke.

But then neither of those games carried the championship of a junior college conference. This year the game will have all the title aspects—including the home team entering the game as the underdogs. For such is the case. The Tigers boast a big line, with a fast backfield caving behind it. This sort of combination is double tough to beat, and when these teams clash Thanksgiving the stands, field and all available standing room should be packed.

If Paris High and Sherman High can play to 1,500 people—the largest crowd ever to see it—why not to Wise Field for a football game on Armistice with Paris out of the running for district honors, then what should the attendance be Thanksgiving. Better, what will it be?

THIS MAN Staples, who plays at right tackle for the Dragons, is some pumpkin at playing football. And playing right near to him is another, sometimes referred to by the name that sounds like pumpkin, called who is likewise good. Maybe you know him. He wears his name Parkhill Shelton and every Friday afternoon for the last three years he has gone out onto Wise Field or some other field and proceeded to write his name indelibly in the minds of rival coaches by his ferocious tackling and other-wise all-around fine play. Right now he goes down as a nomination for an all-conference guard—and we hope he gets it, for he's a fine fellow—modest and unassuming until that whistle blows and then he becomes a football playing machine that never runs down.

Now Staples—Friday when the game was nearly over and it seemed certain he should be a bit tired after playing practically the entire game—broke through to toss Bush, a fast man, for about a 15 yard loss as Bush went back to pass. And Friday was not the first time he has ever done this.

And Copeland and Parkhill Shelton teamed on Portwood once Friday—Shelton went low and Copeland high after the tackle and they tossed Portwood back into the laps of the Wesley backs.

These, and Wells blocking a punt with his nose and staying in the game until half time, the friendly kidding of members of both teams all during the game and the fine sportsmanship—there was not a penalty called for roughing all afternoon—were impressive happenings as the Dragons won their first game from Wesley.

By DUB FUREY

Driving down the field 80 yards for a touchdown after Moore had returned the opening kick-off from his one-yard line to the 20 yard marker, the Paris Junior College Dragons passed, ran and plunged their way to a 12 to 0 victory over the Wesley College Panthers here Friday. The victory was the first in history for a Dragon team over Wesley in football. The Dragons lost at least three other chances to score when fumbles halted drives down the field.

From the second play of the game, when Hatfield broke through his right tackle for 15 yards, the outcome of the game was never in doubt. After Hatfield had carried the ball out of bounds and Briggs had ripped off 5 yards through the middle of the Panther line, Hatfield dropped back and shot a pass to Clements that was first touched by the Dragon end, then bounded high into the air and finally came down into the waiting arms of "Clemo."

The heavy netted the Dragons a much-needed 11 yards. It took just seven more plays for the Dragons to carry the oval past the last white mark. Hatfield supplying the final punch by driving through the middle of Wesley's line and carrying over with yards to spare.

The Dragons' second touchdown came in the second quarter after Wells had broken through and blocked a punt on Wesley's 23 yard line. Hatfield lost a yard at left end and a pass was incomplete, but on the next play Hatfield dropped a perfect pass into the hands of Patterson, who was standing over the goal line. McDowell attempted the extra point from placement but his effort was wide.

Once the Dragons failed to carry the ball over after having it inside Wesley's 10 yard line. This was in the first period when Clements blocked a punt and recovered the ball on the Wesley 9 yard line. In four thrusts at the line the Dragons lost two yards and the ball went over to the invaders. So completely did the Dragon forwards outplay the Wesley line that not once did the invaders get inside the local team's 20 yard line. Although the Panthers ground out 10 first downs, these were made principally in their own territory. Once past midfield the green jerseys laid found the play of such stalwart linemen as Staples and later Copeland at left tackle, Briggs at the other tackle and the midwall combination of Wells, P. Shelton, Bell, Hardy and Barnett, alternating at the guards and at center, that halted drives that looked as though they might produce results.

The Dragon backfield combination of Briggs, quarterback Moore and Capt. Shelton halfbacks and Hatfield fullback supplied the punch for the first score, with McDowell, Crouch and Watson being worked into the game at various stages of the contest. McDowell played a large part of the afternoon at the quarterback post and continued to show the drive exhibited at Texarkana last Friday. Hatfield, who scored the first touchdown, is still favoring an injured leg but managed to get loose for several neat gains in spite of his handicap in between throwing a number of beautiful passes. The manner in which he drove over the goal line in the first quarter did not indicate his leg was bothering him—his legs were churning like pistons and he was running about three feet above the ground floor.

From the sidelines the game was at times listless. Both teams fumbled on fumbles and Wesley twice with each team recovering several loose balls. A heavy field slowed down the running attacks of both teams, the midair ball carriers of both teams slipping on several occasions when they seemed about to break loose for a dazzling end run. After being played off their feet in the first half, during which the Dragons made 10 of their 18 first downs to three for the Panthers, the Wesley eleven came back fighting in the last half to roll up seven first downs, one less than the number made by the locals. Time after time the Panther backs would get loose for substantial gains only to see a Dragon lineman come leaping through the line on the next play and throw the ball carrier for a loss.

Quinn, big Wesley ball lugger, lived up to advance notices with his dives off the tackles and through the center of the line. He topped off a splendid afternoon's performance by several neat running passes to Portwood and Beauchamp, but for the most part they were either batted down by an alert Dragon secondary or fell from the hands of their intended receiver.

Bush, after starting the game, returned late in the day to fill the air with his passes. An excellent heaver, he completed but one pass, that to Beauchamp, for 12 yards. The Dragon backs, especially McDowell, couldn't allow any others to be caught. Hendricks muffed one that seemed certain to be completed in the closing moments of the game with McDowell right on his heels. Incidentally, the net result of the Panther aerial parade was three completed for a total of 40 yards. On the other hand the Dragons managed to complete only five aerials, one was for a touchdown.

These, and Wells blocking a punt with his nose and staying in the game until half time, the friendly kidding of members of both teams all during the game and the fine sportsmanship—there was not a penalty called for roughing all afternoon—were impressive happenings as the Dragons won their first game from Wesley.

HUGO CONTINUES STREAK OF WINS

Scored on Second Time of Season. Hugo Beats Atoka 14 to 12

HUGO, Okla., Nov. 14.—Scored on for the second time this season Hugo high school's football eleven continued its all-victorious record here Friday, defeating Atoka high school 14 to 12. Playing rings around the visitors during the first half, Hugo quickly ran up 14 points. A fighting Atoka eleven came back strong in the second half, unhooking a whirlwind series of passes and end runs. They were unable, however, to annex the extra points. The game ended with Hugo marching steadily toward the Atoka goal with off tackle smashes.

Week of Secret Practice For Steers and Frogs Indicates Hard-Fought Battle Today

Crucial Southwest Game Almost 'Toss-up'

By GAYLE TALBOT, JR.

Associated Press Sports Writer. DALLAS, Nov. 14.—A week of ultra-secret practice behind the Texas Longhorns and Texas Christian Horned Frogs have announced ready for Saturday's vital Southwest Conference battle at Fort Worth. The two powerful elevens are expected to square off before a crowd of 25,000 spectators, the largest crowd to witness a conference melee this season.

Undeclared in their last twenty-one engagements, the Christians will enter the week's big bout with an opportunity to take a strangle hold on their second straight southwest title. A victory over the Longhorns, who stand out as their most dangerous rivals, would leave the Frogs in such good shape they would need only to get a tie in one of their remaining conference tilts to wind up on top.

Although the Christians have forged steadily through their schedule so far, marking up their third conference triumph at the expense of Rice, 26 to 6, last week, they meet in the Longhorns an eleven that has made a more sensational showing for the last month. In that time the heavy Steers have polished off three major opponents, Baylor, Southern Methodist and the Oklahoma Sooners, leaders of the big six. They lost to Rice, 6 to 6, after Hassel of Rice recovered a fumbled kick on Texas' one-yard line, but completed 13 first downs to four for the Owls.

Both teams have practiced in the utmost exclusion this week, even the usual faculty permits rescinded. The fact has given rise to the prediction that both will bring new and tricky attacks Saturday. Many observers believe Coach Francis Schmidt of the Frogs has been saving up a few "touchdown" plays that feature his ace ball-carrier, Cy Leland, just for the Longhorns. A pair of long dashes by the Frog flash had much to do with beating the Steers, 15 to 12, a year ago.

A third southwest conference eleven, beaten in its own sector, will have the distinction of playing in one of Saturday's feature frays on the Atlantic seaboard. The Southern Methodist Mustangs, who are well remembered by eastern fans for a sensational stand against Army's strong 1928 eleven, will host their 1930 bombardment against the Navy at Baltimore. Coach Ray Morrison has indicated

Porkers May Try Score Early; Play Defense

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark., Nov. 14.—Clouded skies threatened over the Ozark hills Friday night as the University of Arkansas Razorbacks and the Baylor University Bears of Waco, Texas, ran through light signal practice behind locked doors in preparation for their gridiron encounter Saturday.

Neither camp was willing to predict what the result of the game might be. Both teams were honor guests Friday night at a pep rally in the Arkansas auditorium.

Arkansas will attempt to score early and should the Porkers once grab the lead, they probably would be willing to play a defensive game, it was believed. This was indicated by Coach Fred Thomsen when he made a last minute "change" in the lineup, sending Ledbetter to the bench.

Arkansas made final preparations to smother Baylor's aerial game, even rehearsing defensive formation to line up against the Bears.

The Standings:

Team	W	L	T	Pts.
Texas Christian	3	0	0	1,900
Texas	2	1	0	607
Arkansas	2	1	0	667
S. Methodist	1	1	1	599
Rice	1	1	0	323
Baylor	0	3	1	320

Ideal Weather Expected For Aggie-Rice Tilt

COLLEGE STATION, Nov. 14.—Coach Mattie Bell sent his Texas Aggies through a light workout Friday in final preparation for their last home game of the season with the Rice Owls here Saturday.

Friday's warm sunshine coming on the heels of Thursday night's shower gave promise of pleasant weather for the annual clash. A special train from Houston is due to arrive at noon Saturday. With sun driving the roads, many supporters of both the Aggies and the Houston team were expected to come by auto.

All of the Bellmen were in good condition except Captain "Bull" Ford, fullback, who was not expected to play. Lord, brilliant sophomore guard who was unable to get into the S. M. U. game, was expected to start.

The Aggies have not won a conference game this season and the Owls have copped only one.

NEGOTIATIONS FOR ARMY-NAVY CLASH PROVE SUCCESSFUL

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—Unemployment has brought about an Army-Navy football game after general, admirals, congressmen and civilians failed.

The service elevens will meet in New York December 15, for the first time since 1921 and the gate receipts expected to be more than $500,000, will go to help those out of work.

Major General William R. Smith, superintendent of West Point, announced Friday the navy's proposal for the game had been accepted and immediately afterwards Mayor Philip Fleming, Army's graduate manager of athletics, left for Washington by airplane to arrange details.

He landed at Philadelphia because of murky weather and probably will confer with naval academy officials at Baltimore Saturday.

The field for the game, the price to be charged for tickets and even the date itself are tentative. The taking in an Army-Navy game is a feat. The secretary of the Navy said Friday he disliked the idea of the boys tumbling about on a frozen field. He added he hoped that the Navy would get find it possible to cancel its game December 6 with the University of Pennsylvania and play the Army instead.

Annapolis has favored the idea almost since it was first proposed that the teams meet to help the unemployed. West Point did not welcome it at first. Officials there felt it would be too hard on the players but reflection brought a gradual change in attitude.

The Yankee stadium is favored for the game. Studded with temporary seats it will seat about 50,000. Five dollars a ticket has been set as the top price for east-west football classics. Unofficial proposals have been made that box seats for the contest be sold at $1,000 each.

The light shower Thursday night was just enough to put the gridiron in perfect condition and if the weather man's prediction of a mildly cool afternoon proves correct, the contest will be staged in an ideal setting. More than 5,000 of the stadium's seats were still unsold when the ticket offices closed Friday night and there was little prospect of a sell-out, but the advance sale plus the weather prospect indicated the previous high mark of 22,000 set at the Southern Methodist university game here last year will be bettered.

Coaches Clyde Littlefield and Bill James led their Texas squad into Fort Worth Friday night and after dinner and a long walk, retired to quarters in the Texas hotel. The Longhorns left Austin at noon and didn't so much as suit up on the eve of battle, which is expected to decide the conference championship. That has been the Steers' custom in practically all games away from home this season. The one exception was last Saturday when they went to Waco a day ahead of the Baylor game. A day of absence from the field before a game, whets the athletes to a keen edge, Littlefield believes.

Simmons Loses To Austin College

SHERMAN, Nov. 14.—Simmons University's cowboys met their first conference defeat of the season at the hands of Austin college here Friday when the Kangaroos roundly outplayed them to win 13 to 0. Austin college registered 12 first downs to six for the Cowboys.

The Kangaroos started out by clobbering the Cowboys in the opening quarter. And won the game in the final quarter, with Captain Henderson, Mastlock, Flexharty and Lillis driving down the field to the 27-yard mark. Lillis brushed off tackle and went for a touchdown. He failed to kick goal.

With this information Fitts said "this office has no other alternative under the law than to place the matter before the grand jury." He said Miss Devoe will be summoned for questioning by the grand jury next Tuesday.

Informing the district attorney's statement, Nathan Friedman, Miss Devoe's attorney, said he had visited Fitts and was told the district attorney was "very sorry" but the charges would have to be drawn up. Friedman said she would deny the "coffession."

Chapter 9

Bruce Armstrong, who was first into the little room, turned to George Orie, who was directly behind him.

"Get the women away, if you can," he said, "attention to this. He held his candle so that the faint, flickering ray fell full on the prone figure on the floor."

"Why, it isn't the poet," exclaimed Lady Dorothy, in a shrill voice. She had pushed her way to the side of Mr. Armstrong, "He isn't wearing evening dress."

With a gesture of command, Armstrong thrust his candle into his hostess' hand and signalled George to throw the rays from his eye. The faint spot, then, he gently turned the figure until it was lying on its back and free from concealment of the bed valances.

"Edward..." breathed Lady Dorothy, scarcely audibly.

It was in deed, Lord Winston, or rather what was left of his earthly self. The eyes were closed, and staring at a curious, twisted smile, scarcely even in death, lay about the still mouth. The nose lay against the white waistcoat, and no less white shirt was a thick and smelly red substance.

And from the left side, just where the heart should be, protruded the curious filigreed handle of what seemed to be a medical knife. It was evident at once that it was this knife which had caused the young girl's death.

The guests crowded silently around; they seemed so shocked for speech. In dismay they stared at the figure at their feet which so recently had been alive with life. Muriel Haddon shuddered and drew away as Prince Posselsky pressed closer to her. She had loved Lord Winston; she still loved him. She knew it certainly in that moment. Once she had even hoped that the fates might be kind and let Edward care for her. But now he was dead, snuffed out like a candle in a whiff of air. It frightened her. Death was so sudden and fleet, it made life feel so uncertain and frail. Through the tears that were slowly stealing down her cheeks, she stole a glance up at her companion. The Prince was pale by nature, but the pallor which now held him in its grip was a different, more terrible sort. He might have been dead, too, but for the burning intensity of his eyes, which rested on the dead man.

ing over to Lady Dorothy, who perched in her chair.

"I think I had better take Lady Dorothy to her room. And someone had better stay with the poor child. I think I'll stay there the night, if you like."

"Please..." was all Lady Dorothy could find strength to say, while her tired eyes expressed utterances of gratitude.

Business Opportunities

A Big Opportunity

There is a big change taking place in agriculture that spells success and profit to men who see the possibilities and grasp the opportunity early. Power farming equipment is coming into its own. In fact, it is the genuine "Farm Relief." Authorities agree there is prosperity ahead for those engaged in the sale of power farming machinery.

One of the long established leaders in this field is looking for a man in this locality to act as his retail dealer. He must be thoroughly reliable, should have a wide acquaintance among farmers, and should have some working capital. He need not now be engaged in a retail business. All communications will be treated as confidential. Address reply to Box "X" Care of Paris Morning News.

New Orleans Cotton
NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 14. (P)—Cotton was quiet Friday, than has been the rule of late and prices while fluctuating within a fairly wide range developed no definite trend and finally closed at a trifling advance for the day. Despite unfavorable cables the market after a slight responsive drop at the start advanced 3 to 11 points in early trading on firmer stocks and a favorable view of the domestic consumption for October which the census bureau announced as 444,494 bales exclusive of lint.

After reacting 10 to 14 points from the highs near noon on a bearish view of the weekly statistics, the market rallied sharply in the late trading owing to the advance in stocks reaching highs 26 to 27 points above the lows with December at 11.7 and January at 11.52. Right at the end, however, the market broke 15 to 19 points on realizing and liquidation. The close was barely steady, the general market showing net gains for the day of only 1 to 4 points.

Liverpool came in 5 to 6 penny points worse than day and opening trades here showed losses of 9 to 10 points. Private cables reported hedge selling and general liquidation.

New York Cotton
NEW YORK, Nov. 14. (P)—Rather nervous and irregular fluctuation occurred in the cotton market here Friday, with alternating spurts of buying and selling which, however, left the market net higher for the day.

After selling up from an irregular opening the market declined under realizing or liquidation but stiffened up again on a renewal of trade buying and covering. March contracts after advancing from 11.55 to 11.57, broke to 11.53, advanced to 11.59 and closed at 11.45. The general market closed easy at net advances of 3 to 14 points.

There was some early selling on the relatively easy ruling of Liverpool and sentiment may have been somewhat unsettled by confusing rumors concerning possible changes in the federal farm board or its policies. These rumors, however, were not confirmed and the market soon steadied up on reports of trade buying particularly in the spring months and covering.

Chicago Grain
CHICAGO, Nov. 14. (P)—Despite surprising relative strength shown by prices for December delivery of wheat here, the wheat market as a whole averaged lower Friday. General belief was expressed that farm board allies were purchasing December wheat on a large scale. On the other hand, Canada's 1929 wheat yield was officially estimated as 11,600,000 bushels larger than forecast in September, and Canadian country marketings for 24 hours totaled 2,143,000 bushels against 785,000 a year ago.

Closing quotations on wheat were nervous at 1-4 to a bushel lower than Thursday's finish. Corn closed 1-5 1/2 to 1-6 down; oats 1-4 1/2 to 1-5 off.

Closing indemnities: Wheat—December 70 5-8, 74 7-8; March 72 1-4, 75 3-8; May 72 1-4 3-8, 75 3-8 3-4; July 72 3-4, 77 1-2. Corn—December 69 1-3, 72 3-4, 75 3-4, 77 1-2, 79 1-2. Oats—December 72 1-4, 75 1-2, 77 1-2, 79 1-2. (offers) 78 1-4.

Fort Worth Live Stock
FORT WORTH, Nov. 14. (P)—Hogs—1,000, steady, no rail hogs offered; truck top $8.65-$8.75; packing sows $7.50 or steady.

Cattle—1,500, butcher cows, low cutters and mixed butcher cattle suitably steady; few good fat cows up to $2; calves fully steady; well bred mixed calves $7.50.

Sheep—200; steady; medium grade lambs $6.50; yearlings and 2 year old wethers $8; aged wethers $4.40.

New York Stock Market
NEW YORK, Nov. 14. (P)—Copper was king of the financial markets Friday. Inspired by a 12 cent quotation for the red metal—representing a 2-1/2 cent advance this week—stock prices scored their fourth successive rise, which meant the rally had endured longer than any upward movement since May.

Net gains ranged from 1 to 5 points, but the trading was not particularly active until the last half hour when a scramble for copper issues brought general covering throughout the list. Sales for the day totaled 2,649,630 shares, a drop of about $80,000 from yesterday.

Continuation of the rally, which averages 11 points for the four days, emphasized the influence which the depressed commodities wielded over speculative sentiment. Prospects of a curtailment in copper output estimated at about 20,000 tons a month and the resultant gain in price seemed to relieve the market of some of its worries. The copper situation admittedly has been a difficult hazard on the road to recovery, and if the present improvement can be retained or expanded Wall Street believes the consequences may be rather far reaching in that other basic staples may be helped by copper's example.

Another bullish factor was the drastic deflation in federal reserve brokers' loans from which all traces of the big bull market now have been removed.

BAPTISTS DECIDE

the schools and benevolent institutions.

The matter was resurrected, after it had been decided to let it rest a year while the policies involved could be more closely studied, when Dr. W. R. White of Dallas, executive secretary, said the convention had never won the confidence of the wealthier members because of lack of proper business organization.

Plan Worked Out
The plan had been worked out by two of the church's most active lay members, Carl P. Collins of Dallas and H. L. Kokernot of San Antonio. Dr. Scarborough, Dr. George W. Truett and Dr. S. P. Brooks, denominational leaders, recommended the proposal as a practical solution of many financial problems of the convention.

Members of the foundation committee will be selected because of their experience in handling financial problems. They will serve without pay and act in an advisory capacity, having nothing to do with the actual management of the institutions affected. The foundation will be comprised of nine members to be selected by a committee consisting of Dr. K. Martin of San Antonio, W. W. Melton of Waco, Dr. L. R. Scarborough of Fort Worth, G. L. Yates of Amarillo and Robert H. Colman of Dallas.

Waco Gets Next Meet
The convention ratified recommendations of its committee on time place and preacher, voting to meet in Waco next November 11, 12, and 13 and accepting the nomination of Dr. Willard A. Jenkins of Abilene to deliver the next convention sermon.

Considering money matters, past and future, the convention learned from Dr. W. R. White of Dallas, secretary of the executive board, that the churches met the financial goal set for them and applied $165,517 towards the convention indebtedness, which had been reduced to $720,000.

Dr. V. Edwards of Fort Worth, submitting the report on the convention budget, revealed that $267,329 had been allocated for the coming year as preferred items to care for fixed obligations, and $225,500 for missions and education, state and southwide, making a total budget of $500,339, or approximately $37,000 in excess of the budget of the past year.

Mr. Givens $75,000
H. L. Kokernot of San Antonio was announced as the layman who promised to subscribe $75,000 towards obliterating the indebtedness of Baylor university provided the entire amount of $550,000 should be paid by December 31. The donor of the large amount was not identified when the Baylor campaign was inaugurated at Thursday night's meeting. Carl Collins will go to Waco to take charge of the campaign.

Dr. Brooks announced the convention standing committees for next year as follows: Budget control, H. S. Kokernot, San Antonio; Carl Collins, Dallas; Forest Smith, Fort Worth; A. E. Kerr, Houston; T. V. Neal, El Paso; finance, C. V. Edwards, Fort Worth; Earl B. Smyth and Cullen F. Thomas, Dallas; A. D. Foreman, St. Houston; O. L. Powers, Wichita Falls; budget promotion, W. R. White, T. C. Gardner, G. S. Hopkins, Mrs. P. S. Davis and George J. Mason, all of Dallas.

Want Tax Exemption
A resolution was passed advocating that the next legislature pass a law exempting from taxation a house owned by a church and used exclusively as a dwelling place for the minister of such church. It was pointed out that under the existing laws it had been held that a house owned by a church and used exclusively as a dwelling place for the ministry was not exempt from taxation. Houses used exclusively for worship are exempt from taxation.

Jewelry Salesman Robbed

Salter was taken to the office of detective chief John Morton for questioning.

Agricultural Head

JOE P. AMIS

Joe P. Amis, newly elected member of the board of directors of the chamber of commerce, who has been named chairman of the agricultural division, states that he plans at an early date to set up an organization for his division and will outline a program of work for the coming year. He will seek the cooperation of the county farm agent, A. L. Edmiston and the home demonstration agent, Miss Lida Cooper.

Mr. Amis is perhaps one of the best posted men on agriculture in the county. Aside from his long years of experience in the produce business which has brought him in contact with both production and market ends of the business he also operates land extensively, owning farm lands in Lamar county and in Oklahoma.

In years past he has contributed his time, effort and money to the development of certain lines of agriculture in Lamar county.

DO-X FLIGHT

morning, was again creeping over the waters.

At the speed which the plane was flying the DO-X could not hope to reach Bordeaux until late at night and the flight would have been attended by a certain risk in the darkness and fog. Hence the captain decided to taxi along the coast for a way, since the ship could make a respectable speed on the surface even though it could not do so well in the air with crippled motors, and then ride out the night at anchor some place.

In addition, French authorities had arranged for a stop for gasoline and oil for refueling the DO-X at the small port of St. Nazaire de Charente, four miles west of Rochefort. It was decided to head for that point. Confusion of this little town with the great port of St. Nazaire at the mouth of the Loire farther north was responsible for a report that the DO-X had landed at St. Nazaire.

Hence with all these considerations the big plane came down to the surface like a seagull just off Les Barges and taxied gracefully over the calm sea.

Thereafter she skimmed down the coast, the drone of her engines heard by people ashore, but her lights invisible through the mist and darkness to a point between the island of Re and the city of La Rochelle.

It was understood that in the morning the flying boat will go to St. Nazaire de Charente, a short distance farther south and there take on fuel and possibly adjust the crippled engines.

The DO-X's adventures furnished a hectic day not only for those on board but for those on land watching its progress.

Even Friday morning, when the big ship left Calshot air station in England, several false starts were made before it could be lifted from the water. This was caused partly by a heavy fog which veiled the coast and even prevented some of the passengers from reaching Calshot in time. Robert Hartmann, Lady Grace Drummond-Hay, newspaper correspondent and another reporter were left behind, the DO-X thus taking off with only 24 persons aboard.

DAPPER BANDIT

He told them he was "Mr. Harris" and wished to buy an expensive ring for his wife.

Once in Reingold's office the man protested the stones shown him "were not good enough" and persuaded the gem dealer to bring his finest wares from the safe. One stone was valued at $44,000.

After the gems were displayed, the robber threatened Reingold with a pistol and when the merchant resisted, clubbed him. Reingold was bound and gagged with adhesive tape and the diamond and emerald trays emptied.

Miss Kirk saw the man leave Reingold's office, pausing at the doorway to say "thank you Mr. Reingold. I think that stone will do. I will bring my wife to see it tomorrow."

Daultoff several minutes later found Reingold kicking the door.

Predict Body To Save State $500,000 Year

ALSTIN, Nov. 14. (P)—The prediction that the work of the university land leasing committee of the state legislature would save the state as much as $500,000 a year in its dealings with oil companies in the future was made here Friday by Representative Ray Holder of Lancaster, member of the committee.

Holder made this assertion after the committee concluded an all-day session with officials of the University of Texas and state auditors auditing the transactions between the university and the oil companies holding leases on university lands.

Because the committee has developed "nothing sensational," Holder said, its work might not, perhaps, be generally known, but the auditors had uncovered "from 25 to 30" small sources of additional revenue from oil produced on university lands.

He also expressed the opinion that the state would be able to recover from these "small sources" loss in the past. He believed, for instance, that suit would be brought to recover for gas wasted in the various fields, on the grounds that a royalty should have been paid on the gas regardless of the fact it was not utilized.

The next matter before the commission in consideration of the French proposal that the budgetary method be placed in the hands of a group of experts for study. The results of this study would be reported to the various governments some time before the convening of the general disarmament conference.

The day's session again was enlivened by an exchange of remarks between Rene Massigli, the French delegate, and Maxim Litvinoff, the Russian representative, who Thursday had a verbal tilt with Viscount Cecil.

Before adoption of the British proposal, the commission voted down resolutions offered by Italy and Russia and polled a tie vote on a German proposal.

The German proposal, submitted by Count von Bernstorff, was for direct limitation by enumeration of war materials.

The commission took note of the attempt at the life of premier Hamaguchi of Japan, and expressed its profound regret. N. Sato, the Japanese delegate, thanked his colleagues for their consideration.

TEXAS NOT TO GET

When an additional appropriation of $5,950,554 was made available in addition to the $4,345,820 already apportioned, or a total for the present fiscal year of $10,296,374. Of this amount, with only five months of the present fiscal year gone, we have only $1,332,816.75 of the 1931 apportionment still available for new projects, and in addition, we of course can follow with the $7,963,557 which is Texas' apportionment for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1932.

"In other words, instead of a new $10,000,000, we have $3,016,557.38 federal aid up to June 30, 1932. We are putting federal aid to work as fast as possible and while the action of the bureau of public roads makes our program more elastic and easier to plan and provide for, it will have no apparent effect on our activities, remembering that the speeding up began several months ago."

He is a pilot, first class, in the corps, but did not state in his letter whether he or his companion was piloting the bombing plane at the time they were forced down.

BAYER CROSS IS PURITY SIGN

Recognized As Mark Of Genuine Aspirin World Over

"Looking backward" is quite a national fad these days. Uncle Sam has acquired the habit, and a series of mighty interesting stamps commemorating great events in American history now gladden the hearts of stamp collectors and aroused interest in events of great import in the life of the U. S. A.

Ohio and other states carved from the Indian country of Revolutionary days have been honoring George Rogers Clark who led in the campaign that put the West on the map. Commercial houses are accepted opportunities to celebrate anniversaries.

Druggists are looking forward to the tenth birthday of First Aid Home Remedy Week in 1931. Aspirin, too, has a new anniversary just ahead, for 31 years ago "Bayer" put Aspirin into the land of helpfulness for pain, and today the "Bayer Cross" is recognized wherever newspaper advertising extends as the mark of genuine Aspirin, proved safe by millions and prescribed by physicians long before it became a household remedy. It pays to display a Bayer Carton on the counter—a reminder of the big newspaper Aspirin campaign now in progress in this territory.

"Advertising for prestige" is often the long way round—so long that many tenderfeet "go broke" before they sight the cash register.

Mark Twain Placed Turkey And Cranberry Sauce in Culinary Art

Mark Twain swore by American food as he did by the American flag, and heading the list of viands he ordered to be ready for him when he returned to American shores after his famous TRAMP ABOARD, stands "wild turkey and cranberry sauce."

The eminent American humorist with his decided preference for the kitchen of his homeland was not alone either in that day or this in his appreciation of turkey and cranberry as a gastronomic specialty.

In an earlier day when the log cabin of the pioneer was surrounded by these noble birds—wild turkeys—saluting each other from the tree tops, Benjamin Franklin noted their excellencies. It was this beloved American statesman who argued that "the turkey which is surely a finer bird than the eagle, less vicious and infinitely more useful, should have been chosen the emblem of the United States." Those were gala times for hunters and epicures when wild turkeys used to fly in flocks of hundreds, and, for the asking or better—for the aiming of a good marksman could provide himself with a savory dish any day.

But long before Benjamin Franklin's time turkey and Cranberry Sauce was known in America. The Aborigine American who first discovered the tonic quality of the cranberry, also knew his turkey, which provided his primitive table with many a feast. Nor did it take the Spaniard long to appreciate the value of this native American bird. For it was little more than a quarter of a century after Columbus landed on these shores that it was introduced to Europe and as early as 1531 it was listed among their dainties.

taking shape rapidly. It is a program which both Republicans and Democratic leaders believe can be disposed of within the three months of the session.

Expansion of the public buildings program and possibly of the road construction work as a means of adding unemployment has first place on the tentative calendar. Appropriation of funds for seed and fertilizer loans to the farmers in the drought-stricken areas gets second attention. Enactment of vital appropriation bills has precedence at all times.

While the Republican Independents led by Senators Borah of Idaho, are demanding additional farm relief legislation, it appears unlikely the administration will sanction such a move.
